

Question 2: Average loan amount of undergraduates

Source: Measuring Up State Report Cards

Status: Holding Steady

The average loan amount of Kentucky undergraduates in 2004 was actually lower than in 2000. These figures include federal loans only (Stafford, Perkins, and Parent-Plus), which comprise more than 90 percent of the funds students borrow to attend college.